

The Advising Success Network Newsletter | February 2022

In this month's newsletter, we highlight conference sessions led by members of the Advising Success Network (ASN), upcoming deadlines for NACADA: The Global Community for Academic Advising's Global Awards, and this year's Driving Towards A Degree Survey.

Wherever you sit at the student success table, we invite you to join the ASN as we support holistic advising redesign efforts that transform people, processes, and technologies to create better personal, academic, and professional outcomes for all students regardless of their racial or socioeconomic background. Visit the ASN website to learn more about our mission, approach, and network partners, and join us on Twitter and LinkedIn.

The ASN wants to hear from you! Please let us know about your efforts to support students as they work toward achieving their personal, academic, and career goals.

Mission

Our mission is to help institutions build a culture of student success, with a focus on Black, Latinx, Indigenous, Asian, and Pacific Islander students, as well as students from low-income backgrounds, by identifying, building, and scaling equitable and holistic advising solutions that support all facets of the student experience.

Vision

Our vision is a higher education landscape that has eliminated race and income as predictors of student success through a reformed approach to advising, in which all students are supported through a seamless, personalized postsecondary experience that creates better personal, academic, and professional outcomes.
